Outrageous Assault-Markets, Stocks, &c. Gerrespondence of The Tribune.
PRILADELPHIA, Wednesday, Feb. 18.

Last evening about 8 o'clock, as Mr. Robert Woodside, cabinet-maker, in Second-st., above Walnut, was accompanying a married woman, named Fell, home, in a wagon, he was assaulted named Fell, home, in a wagon, he was assaulted about two miles from this city, on the Frankford read, by a man who, jumping into the wagon, exclaimed, "You scoundrel, you, what are you doing with my wife?" A struggle ensued; Mr. W. fell out of the back part of the wagon and was stunned. While in an insensible condition, the assailant attacked him furiously with some sharp instrument, and wounded, mutilated and maimed him a truly shocking manner.

Mr. W. was left bleeding in the road, while the man and woman drove off together. He found his way to a neighboring house, and this morning was conveyed to the hospital, where he will prob-

As Mr. Woodside will give no satisfactory account of the occurrence, the police have, so far, been unsuccessful in their search for the perpetrator of the horrible outrage. Mr. W. states that he met the woman at the corner of Second and Vine sts. and, as he has known her for some time, she

There is a little pause in the Stock market to-day and the quantity of Stock sold was less than for some days past. Holders were very firm and their unwillingness to accede to lower prices checked transactions. There was no change of importance in quotations and at the Second Board prices were generally firm although the sales were limited. The Report of the Eric Co. published in The Tribune, was considered as very satisfactory and the Stock acquired firmness. Long Island was firm, 25? being bid at the Second Board .-Harlem was weak, selling at 697, a decline of 1 P cent. from the highest point. Reading closed at 634, a slight decline. The idea of a consolidation of the entire line of Roads from Albany to Buffalo, a plan for which a Committee of all the Roads is now concocting, has been received favorably and the Stocks of all the Roads are improving. It is admitted that not only would such an arrangement be highly desirable for its economies and for its unity of purpose and action, but that it would set at rest all agitation of parallel Roads. For Utica and Schenectady 126 was bid. Rochester and Syracuse 1134, and Mohawk 934 without sellers. Madison was firm at 99. Edge. worth is one of the buoyant Stocks to-day, as the worth is one of the buoyant Stocks to day, as the Boston market is rising; sales at 11;, and that bid. Stonington was heavy and fell off to 41;. Morris was firm at 20;. Large purchases of Indiana 5's prefersed, some $90,000, were made at 40. For Illinois, 67 was bid. At the close 66; was bid for Norwich, and 67 asked. Governments were in moderate demand and steady. In Exchange there is not much doing, but the market is steady. Sterling is 94 w 10 for City names. Francs, 5 12]. The supply of cheap

Freights are firm with small engagements. Cotton, 5 32d; Flour, 9d refused; Corn, 31d with engagements; Dead weight, 12s 6d; 2 2 300 bbls. Oil, 128@15s; Bacon, 15s; Resin, 1s. To London, within a few days, 1,100 kegs Butter, 20s; 50 tuns Oil, 20s; Bacon, 25s; Cheese, 30s, and 1,000 bbls. Oil Cake, 1s 9d. To Havre, Cotton, fc, and Ashes, 86. To Hamburg, Cotton, 9 16c. To Rotterdam, 100 bbls. Spirits Turpentine, ic. There is a fair and steady business in progress in most descriptions of Dry Goods, but the recent activity has abated and is not anticipated to revive before the end of the month. In Cotton fabrics there is much less buoyancy as regards price, owing to the strong downward tendency which the Cotton market is exhibiting .-Holders are scarcely so firm. Woolen Goods are firm with a steady activity of demand. Bleached and unbleached Shirtings and Sheetings show only a moderate inquiry and with diminished firmness, holders taking alarm from the aspect of the Cot ton market. Drills are firm with a moderate stock and fair demand. Osnaburgs continue steady with a very small stock and very limited demand. Denims are in better request and steady in price. Stripes continue to sell moderately at steady prices. Ticks with a good stock are scarcely so firm for the better grades. Printing Cloths are dull; printers buy as sparingly as possible owing to the turn the Cotton market has taken, as well as to the increase in stock of Prints in printers. hands. Holders, however, are firm for the moment, but a further decline in Cotton will necessitate a concession in Cloths. The demand for Prints is not so brisk and there is an easier tone in the market, with more desire to sell from the increase in stock. A fair business is doing in Ginghams, but there is an increase in the supply and prices are without change. Chambrays are very limited in request with a diminished firm acres in prices. There is more doing in Lawns with a steady supply of new goods; the prices are steady. A sale, however, at Auction of old stock Lawns from last year took place to-day which yielded prices under those current. Musiin de Laines are selling moderately in extent at steady prices, but the demand is not yet active. Linseys are dull and heavy. The clothing trade has been buying Cloths freely, but more of foreign than domestic fabrics. There is also more inquiry which prom. ises a better activity; prices are firm. The country trade runs mostly on colored cloths. Satinets are steady with a fair demand. Cassimeres are in fair demand and steady in prices. Sheep's Grays are rather higher for the medium and better qualities, which are not in so large stock as the lower grades. The demand is good for the country trade. Flannels are firm and steady, though in limited demand. The demand has in a measure subsided for French Goods, but a fair business is doing, though the stocks of fancy and millinery goods have been well sifted from the recent more active demand. Blacks are becoming more brisk of sale. French, German and British Cloths are in fair request, especially of the medium and lower grades. Fancy Cassimeres and fancy Vestings are very active. The stock of British Goods is large and in good assortment at steady but not buoyant prices; holders are very firm. French Goods are not so heavy in stocks, the importations having been very freely taken being of more ready demand for the Southern trade, now in a great degree supplied. Auction sales are more numerous, but they are confined to Auctioneers' hypothecations left over from last year. The prices are scarcely so favorable as ten days ago. The Clothing Trade itself is very ac. tive, though it had mainly ceased from buying, being fully stocked. Both for California and the South an active business is doing and at good prices. The Western demand has not yet commenced, but a radical change is in progress, contributing to the perpetual enlargement of the New-York Clothing business, which is already fast gaining on Boston in this branch. In the West, as in the South, there is an increasing disposition to buy ready made Clothing instead of the material, and a decreasing disposition to put up with country-made garments. The consequence is an ever increasing business here with great bacyancy of prices. The demand is now for Summer Clo thing, and it is well met. Few trades have paid better than this, or are now paying. Boots and Shoes are in the like situation; the demand is very active and large shipments are still making for California, and large quantities are selling to the South. These trades have yet suffered no reverse from over-trading to the Pacific, where the increase of population is so great as to outstrip all the estimates of the probable wants of the new

The Pacific Bank went into operation after the 28th September:

In the September report $2,250 of the term thereof and the whole of are not included in the aggregate; and in the December report all of ", and $50 of the item marged form no part of the general aggregate.

It will be seen that the capital has been slightly increased by the Pacific Association, and the next return will show a still further enlargement by the formation of several new Banking houses. In the line of discounts the expansion is not more than is looked for at the last dates. Since September there has been an increase in the specie deposits, and an accumulation of indebtedness from other Banks; but this is more than balanced by the deposits. The change in other features are not im-

The Legislature of the State of Indiana has ust passed an Act authorizing the Crawfordville and Wabash Railroad Company to extend their Road south from Crawfordsville, to connect with the Indianapolis and Terra Haute Road, at a point a few miles west of Indianapolis, thus giving a railway communication from Indianapolis to Lafayette, by way of Crawfordsville. Putnam Co., through which the extension runs, will take $50,000 of stock in her corporate capacity, the residue of the stock necessary will soon be raisedand the line put under contract for grading and bridging early this year. That part of the line lying between Crawfordsville and Lafayette is already graded and bridged ready for the iron, now on its way from Wales, and will be completed in July next. This line traverses a district of country of great wealth and fertility, much of it being prairie. The cost of the Road, with heavy T rail, all completed, will be less than $11,000 per mile. The men in its management are said to be able and energetic, and a speedy completion may be
